

I am begging you to not allow cell phone use on airborne aircraft.
A plane ride is the last bastion of solitude from annoying rings and people who think they are so important they can't be out of touch for a few hours. Please protect the rights of all passengers and don't let this happen - it is an invasion of privacy for everyone else on board. Please....